

Wealthall's Index of MP's Integrity Score (WIMPIS)
An Aptitude Test for Candidates for Public Office

Circulate Unaltered or view at <http://wealthalls.wordpress.com>

The following questionnaire is designed so as you can assess the character and suitability of candidates for public office. It has been designed by a well-known New Zealand survey and research company, who validated it both internally by leaving it on the staff room coffee table, and externally during visits to their old employees, now having 'time-out' at Mt Eden.

Instructions for administering WIMPIS

Approach the candidate surreptitiously, preferably in a confined space with no back exit.

Keep the survey form hidden before whipping open your rain coat and revealing it.

In an authoritative voice state "I am about to administer WIMPIS to you."
"Anything you say will be written down and may produced at a time when you say you have memory lapses."

Do not be distracted by any weird glasses, hairdo, snarl or display of teeth.

UNDER NO circumstances turn your back on the candidate.

Read the questions slowly using punctuation. Many candidates will be unfamiliar with complex sentences and punctuation, so repeat and explain them (with gestures if appropriate).

At completion of the questionnaire ask the candidate whether they would like to give you a donation to keep the results quiet. DO NOT use the word 'bribe'.

If you are seeking 'advice' from your candidate on immigration or setting up a monopoly, ensure that all inducements are in low denomination US currency in a brown paper bag. Receipts will not EVER be issued.
