

Panda'ing to China

Submitted NZ Herald, 19th November 2014

Nothing better illustrates the hypocrisy of politicians than their, 'Panda'ing' to the Leaders of China. China is a totalitarian state, not a lot different to Nazi Germany or Stalin's USSR, but superficial cosmetic surgery, and a series of what are essentially economic bribes, has our leaders submitting to 'Panda indoctrination'.

China's present political system, as opposed to its' people's inclination, uses repression, censorship, economic blackmail and all the other hallmarks of a totalitarian state, ensuring that 'the greatest good is done for the power-fullest minority'. This twisting of the original plank of Marxism, appears acceptable to our leaders, as long as they are given enough dinners, Panda visits and a supply of capital rich, but morally deficient, quasi-governmental business investments

China's President's 'open letter to NZ' is a travesty of empty phrases, mixed with a few implied threats. Nothing in it acknowledges the moral and integrity differences between traditional NZ values, and those of the present Chinese Government

Appeasing the Totalitarian States of Europe in the 30's produced the misery of WWII, and we expect nothing less from our leaders, than firmly stating objections to a system which is morally repugnant to most of us, whatever the 'Realpolitik'.

Author's note

I am not particularly picky about English, often making up word myself, but my gardener and friend, Pete, points out that it would have been a courtesy to the people of New Zealand, if the Chinese President's letter had been submitted to an 'English as a first language speaker', before being published.
